

Vermont EPSCoR: Research on Adaptation to Climate Change

Paid Summer Internships for Undergraduates

JOIN A NEW TRANSDISCIPLINARY TEAM OF RESEARCHERS INVESTIGATING ADAPTATION TO CLIMATE CHANGE IN THE LAKE CHAMPLAIN BASIN AND INTEGRATING THE INTERACTIONS OF CLIMATE, ENVIRONMENT, AND SOCIETY.

Conduct full-time research with faculty members and graduate students in:

- > Molecular Biology
- > Environmental Policy & Law
- > Lake Ecology
- > Water Chemistry & Microbiology
- > Climatology
- > Watershed Ecology
- > Land Use Management
- > Environmental Impacts on Human Health

Internship Dates: June 3 – August 9 | $5,000 Stipend | Opportunities on Campuses Statewide

Go to:
www.uvm.edu/epscor/undergrad to complete your online application!

Application deadline: February 15

We strongly encourage Veterans, individuals with disabilities and students from traditionally underrepresented groups and two year colleges to apply.

VT EPSCoR Center for Workforce Development and Diversity

One Winooski Park Box 137, Saint Michael's College
Colchester, VT 05439 • 802.654.3270 • cwdd@smcvt.edu

This program is funded by the National Science Foundation EPS Grant # 1101317

RACC
Research on Adaptation to Climate Change

