

Green Stormwater Infrastructure Symposium 2016

For Students!

Learn about Green Stormwater Infrastructure from experts in the field with careers in Policy, Design, Engineering, Education, Natural Resource Protection, and more!

Present at the student poster session – win a prize!

Wednesday, March 30th, 2016 1-6:30 PM, UVM's Davis Center, 4th floor

Agenda	Design, Engineering, and Implementation	Natural Green Infrastructure	Policy, Education, and Careers
1-1:30 pm	Landscape Architecture – GSI for biodiversity,	Putting GSI in the Ground	Urban Tree Canopy...
1:30-2 pm			Policy: State/municipal...
2-2:30 pm	Bioretention Engineering	Land Trusts & Floodplain Conservation	GSI and Climate Change
2:30-3 pm			Communicating GSI
3-3:30 pm	Municipal GSI Implementation	Valuing GSI	Education: K-12...
3:30-4 pm			Community Outreach
4-5 pm	Keynote Address from John Todd, PhD. with introduction from Eric Roy, PhD.
5-6:30 pm	Refreshments and Student Poster Presentations

Learn more at

<http://www.uvm.edu/seagrant/green-stormwater-infrastructure-symposium>

or email grant.taylor@uvm.edu

Brought to you by the:

Vermont Green Infrastructure Collaborative

