

Name	Role:Faculty/Research Staff/Masters/PhD/PostDoc	Brief description of your research	Skills/experience you'd like to see in an applicant	Estimated time commitment (hours/week)	Paid/Unpaid	How you want students to express interest/apply?	Email
Charlie Nicholson	PhD Student	This part of my research is focused on using population genetics to estimate the nest density of the common eastern bumblebee	Yes, detail oriented. I am looking for students that have prior experience performing DNA extractions	10 hours/week (paid)	Paid	Email me with a resume and paragraph explaining why interested and relevant skills/experiences.	ccnichol@uvm.edu
Ariana Cano	PhD Student	I am looking at the human dimensions of invasive insects. My project focuses on surveying homeowners in regards to their attitude towards invasive insects. This project is meant to give managers a better understanding of invasive insects, in particular Emerald Ash Borer, Asian Longhorned Beetle, and Hemlock Wolly Adelgid. The intern would be working on collecting non-respondent follow up phone calls.	Comfortable speaking on the phone and with strangers. Patience, and professionalism on the phone. Able to work independently.	5-7 hours week. This could change based on the perfect candidate's availability	Federal Work Study	Email me with a resume and paragraph explaining why interested.	acano3@uvm.edu