

Image created by Visnezh - Freepik.com

HINDUISM 101:

LEARNING THE BASICS & HOW THEY RELATE TO LIFE AT UVM

Learn about the basic concepts practices, and global/regional differences of Hinduism from Dr. Sadia Mahmood, a Fulbright Scholar from Pakistan who specializes in World Religions. Explore and discuss how the campus environment can impact students, staff and faculty who identify with this tradition.

MONDAY, MARCH 5
1 PM - 3 PM

INTERFAITH CENTER
400 S. Prospect

(Redstone Campus next to water tower)

This presentation is part of an ongoing series helping to equip and empower the UVM community to engage more comfortably and competently with spirituality and religion in our life and work on campus.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED - SPACE IS LIMITED
For current UVM staff and faculty only

Please register through PeopleSoft Human Resources
www.uvm.edu/~erp/portal Course Code: ICP006

Presented by the Interfaith Center and Professional Development & Training. For questions or cancellations, please contact develop@uvm.edu