

Photo by Katrina Dreamer

PAGANISM 101:

LEARNING THE BASICS & HOW THEY RELATE TO LIFE AT UVM

Learn about the varieties of belief, practice and communities of the Pagan tradition from healer, teacher, and author, Kirk White. Explore and discuss how the campus environment can impact students, staff and faculty who identify with this tradition.

This presentation is part of an ongoing series helping to equip and empower the UVM community to engage more comfortably and competently with spirituality and religion in our life and work on campus.

TUESDAY, FEB 13
10 AM - 12 NOON

INTERFAITH CENTER
400 S. Prospect

(Redstone Campus next to water tower)

REGISTRATION REQUIRED - SPACE IS LIMITED
For current UVM staff and faculty only

Please register through PeopleSoft Human Resources
www.uvm.edu/~erp/portal Course Code: ICP005

Presented by the Interfaith Center and Professional Development & Training. For questions or cancellations, please contact develop@uvm.edu