

Business Basics for Loggers

This FREE, one-day workshop was developed for owners of Vermont logging businesses. Program includes LUNCH and all materials.

Choose one of the following dates/locations:

● December 7, 2015 in Chester

8:00 am - 3:30 pm
Newsbank, Inc. Conference Center
352 Main St, Chester
802.875.2397

● December 8, 2015 in St. Johnsbury

8:00 am - 3:30 pm
UVM Extension Conference Room
374 Emerson Falls Rd, Suite 1, St. Johnsbury
802.751.8307

Provides 8 Vermont LEAP program credits

Workshop Topics will include:

- Pricing jobs for higher profits
- How best to approach a lender for a loan & how best to maintain a great relationship after you get the loan.
- What are the biggest challenges facing your business & how do you deal with them?
- What is the best form of entity for your logging business: Sole Proprietor, LLC, Corporation, Partnership?
- Getting a basic grip on financial statements
- What stage of the business life cycle is your logging business in?
- What is a Business Plan & why might I need one?
- The basics of good record keeping
- Employer/employee issues
- Retirement and business transition planning

Scheduled Presenters:

Nick Bullock, Yankee Farm Credit (Chester)
Mike Dolce, UVM Extension
Chris Lindgren, UVM Extension

Steve Paddock, VT Small Business Development Center
Dave Redmond, Consultant for Northern Forest Center
Deb Rouelle, Rouelle Bookkeeping (St. Johnsbury)

Workshop enrollment is limited; registrations will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

Register now! Contact Christi Sherlock
1.866.860.1382 or christi.sherlock@uvm.edu

To request a disability-related accommodation to participate in this program, please contact Christi Sherlock at 1.866.860.1382 by November 23, 2015 so we may assist you.

UVM Extension helps individuals and communities put research-based knowledge to work.

Program funding provided by Vermont Housing & Conservation Board, Working Lands Enterprise Initiative and UVM Extension.

